ABTAPL Spring Conference 2026

Location: Wycliffe Hall, University of Oxford, Oxford

Dates: 26th-28th March 2025

The Association of British Theological and Philosophical Libraries (ABTAPL) has a conference every spring, from the Thursday to the Saturday ahead of Palm Sunday (the moveable feast a week before Easter), as celebrated by the established churches in the UK. In 2025, we are meeting in Edinburgh. The focus of the conference is on continuing professional development for our members, through visits to local libraries and talks from members, and to share expertise and experience from external presenters from library and academic backgrounds. We also make sure there is plenty of time for members to network with one another, for informal discussions about our work, and problem solving. Our members range from solo librarians in theological colleges and other small institutions, to employees of large UK universities; we also have an increasing number of personal and retired members who keep up their connection with ABTAPL because of the social and professional value that it brings.

The full conference schedule, including the sessions, is published via:
